Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: SOFTWARE DEVELOPER

I am writing in response to your advertisement for the position Software Developer(Entry Level) on Glassdoor. After reading the job description, I am confident that I would be a perfect fit for this position as my experience and educational background match your requirements.

I am a result driven, self-motivated professional with hands-on experience using various technologies such as, React.js, Redux.js, JavaScript, HTML5, CSS, Bootstrap, jQuery, Node.js, Express.js, PostgreSQL, MongoDB, Python, Mustache, Sequelize (ORM), Firebase. Acquired fundamental knowledge of current web technologies and programming practices through continuing education, reading, and participation in professional groups. Actively involved in team meetings; troubleshoot development and production problems across multiple environments and operating platforms.

Moreover, I have actively participated in several concurrent projects from conception to completion, these include, DC Ride (Driverless Car Technology), BEAP Blog Page, COMPROF and Shopcart App. Participated in all aspects of the software/product development life cycle while interacting with cross functional teams to consistently achieve organizational goals and objectives.

Some of my key competencies as related to this job include:

- Develop up to date knowledge of software development techniques, tools, platforms and languages and frameworks
- Prepare accurate and concise documentation for all work using required standards
- Proactively resolve issues and drive quality and system performance improvements across the application
- Perform thorough unit testing on all relevant platforms to ensure proper implementation
- Demonstrate a general commitment to excellence, a dedication to producing quality work results and an ability to learn and apply new skills
- Possess strong verbal and written communication skills

Your institution will gain from my strong sense of dedication, analytical skills, solid work ethic, teamwork skills, and ability to find solutions. With excellent communication skills and the ability to work well in both team-oriented and self-directed environments giving attention to detail, I am positioned to exceed your expectations.

My enclosed resume provides more detail on my qualifications, skills and work experiences. I would welcome the chance of an interview, where we would be able to discuss in greater detail the value and strength I can bring to your already successful company.

Thank you for the time spent in reviewing my letter and I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours Sincerely,

Beyza Kilickol Akurek
